THE COLUMBIA ENGINE HOUSE.—At the conference of the Finance Committee of the City Council, and the officers of the Columbia Steam Fire Company last week the chairman of the Finance Committee stated that to build a new engine house at this time, in view of the many other demands upon the Corporation, would necessitate the increase of taxes to $2.20; that it was important to the city that there should be no increase; that if the Columbia company insisted upon a new engine house the money appropriated for the purpose would be on hand, but it was very desirable that the company should allow the money for the new house to remain in the treasury until the first of July 1883. A meeting of the Columbia company was held Saturday night last, with M. McLean in the chair, and John H. Strider secretary, to consider the request made by the Finance Committee through its chairman, Mr. J. B. Smoot. After some discussion it was

Resolved: That the request of the Finance Committee of the City Council made to the officers of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company be referred to the Executive Committee, with full power to act in the premises.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE WASHINGTON AND ALEXANDRIA RAILROAD CASE.—A session of the United States District Court was held in this city today, with Judge R. W. Hughes and J. M. Wain, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, on the bench. The business of the Court was to hear arguments for and against a motion filed by the District of Columbia and other interests for the discharge of the receiver—Geo. C. Wilkins—of the Washington and Alexandria Railroad, appointed last January on a motion in the case of Alexander Hay against the Alexandria and Washington Railroad Company. Among the counsel present, and who will take part in the argument, were, for the motion, Francis Miller, John Selden, H. O. Claughton, Geo. Hunton, Joseph H. Bradley, C. W. Wattle and Leonard Marbury, and against the motion, ex-Attorney General of the United States Wayne McVeigh, representing the Alexandria and Washington Railroad; Gen. H. H. Wells, for Alexander Hay, and Col. Francis L. Smith, for the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad. The argument was opened by Mr. Selden, followed by Mr. McVeigh and Gen. Wells. The court then adjourned till tomorrow.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A POSTAL CAR WRECKED.—The Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad train, which left Washington for Richmond at five o'clock Saturday evening, came into collision about half past nine o'clock Saturday night with some freight cars on a side track two miles this side of Richmond. The postal car of the South bound train was badly damaged, and Mr. B. M. Laws, of this city, a postal clerk; Edgar Thompson, a clerk in Washington, on his way home to Richmond; John Q. West, postal clerk on the Virginia Midland Railway, also on his way home to Richmond, and W. B. Johnson, of Washington, a postal clerk, were injured. Mr. B. M. Laws, after receiving surgical assistance, was brought to his home in this city, where he was attended by Dr. Lewis. His injuries, while not serious, are painful. His head is badly cut in several places, and he is severely bruised about the body. His escape from death was almost miraculous as the end of the car in which he was at work at the time of the collision, was literally smashed to pieces. It will be probably several weeks before he is able to report for duty.

EXCITEMENT ON AN EXCURSION STEAMER.—The steamer Mary Washington made her inaugural trip of the season of 1882 to Ocean Springs yesterday, carrying down a large crowd, and a pleasant time was had. On the return trip, when near Fort Foote, the explosion of a lamp in the oil room of the steamer, setting fire to the floor, caused great excitement among the passengers.

The excitement, which was intensified by the fire, was soon allayed, however, by the coolness of Capt. Randall and his crew. In response to signals the U. S. cutter Fish Hawk, which was passing at the time, approached the steamer, and commenced to lower her boats, but no assistance was needed, as the flames had been extinguished. No damage was caused, and the passengers on the Mary Washington were landed safely.

RIVER TRADE.—Inspector G. W. Hawxbury reports the following arrivals at the river front:
Steamer Sue, Geoghegan, Baltimore, merchandise to J. Broders & Co., Steamer Norfolk J. Sharps, Philadelphia, merchandise to F. A. Reed & Co., Steamer John Gibson, Geo. Young, New York, merchandise to F. A. Reed & Co., W. Davidson and A. Lindsay, Schooner Augusta, M. S. Webster, corn for Beckham & Co., Schooner J. H. Gallagher, Charles Lynch, to Ship Yard, to load coal for Norfolk; Schooner W. B. Boulbourn, W. T. Baker, wood to J. E. Ross; Schooner Margaret and F. Moore, J. C. Sampson, to load wood; Schooner Charlie, R. S. Herliert, at Ship Yard for repairs; Sloop May, Smith, at Ship Yard for repairs.

YESTERDAY—RELIGION AND TEMPERANCE.—Yesterday was a genuine May day, bright and warm. The churches open had good congregations, and the temperance people had a regular field day. There was no service in Christ Church, Rev. Mr. Suter being in Norfolk in attendance upon the Episcopal Convention. Rev. Mr. Whittlesey, of Washington, preached in the First Presbyterian Church, and Elder Wm. L. Beebe, of New York, conducted services in the Primitive Baptist Church in the morning. The services in all the other churches were conducted by the resident clergy.

The whole afternoon was devoted to temperance meetings. At 2:30 o'clock the Ladies' Railroad Temperance Union, of this city, assisted by several members of the Washington Union, held a meeting under the shed at the Virginia Midland Railway depot. At 3 o'clock J. Cavanaugh, of Washington, assisted by several members of the Free Methodist congregation, held an open air temperance meeting at the foot of King street. At 4 o'clock a Gospel temperance meeting was held in the hall of the Reform Club. At 5 o'clock committees from the Y. M. C. A. and the Reform Club held a temperance meeting at the corner of Cameron and Royal streets. At 7 o'clock the Free Methodistists held a meeting at the corner of King and Pitt streets. There was certainly an abundance of both religion and temperance in this city yesterday, but where grace abounds sin doth much more abound. The boys could not get into the saloons, but they carried barrooms on a small scale around in their pockets.

ESCAPE OF A CONVICT.—Lewis Cox, a negro from the county, convicted of rape on a little colored girl, and sentenced to sixteen years in the penitentiary at the last term of this County Court, escaped from the jail in this city on Saturday evening last.

Cox knocked at the main door of the jail and informed Jailor Sherwood that he had some eggs he had collected in the jail yard. When the key in the door was turned, Cox pushed it open, knocked Mr. Sherwood down and made his escape. As soon as City Sergeant Smith, who was absent from the jail on business at the time, was informed of the escape, he instituted measures for the recapture of Cox. Deputy Sergeant Braxton Smith, Officer Julian Arnold and others were sent in different directions, but as yet their efforts have been in vain. The fugitive is still at large. Cox, who is a young man, thick set and dark, is believed by many to be innocent, as he was convicted solely upon the testimony of the girl charging him with the crime, while the testimony of physicians and others was in his favor.

POLICE ITEMS.—Geo. Ford, colored, arrested Saturday night for being drunk and disorderly at a festival was fined $5 by the Mayor this morning. He paid the fine and was discharged.

A white man named Carter, from Washington, was arrested yesterday afternoon by officer Grady for being drunk and disorderly on the streets. After being locked up in the station house for a short time he was released upon depositing $5 for his appearance this morning. He did not appear and the $5 was forfeited.

AN IMPOSTOR.—A large, pock-marked Englishman, traveling with his wife and two pretty children, boy and a girl, arrived in this city Friday night, and on Saturday succeeded, by a plausible story of distress, in collecting from various citizens a considerable sum of money. He had for sale a patent shoe button, and represented himself to be a first class shoe maker, having had charge of a shoe factory in England. Work was promised him this morning, but he left the city Saturday night with his family, it is supposed, for Richmond.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the M. E. Church, South, will hold a strawberry festival—the first of the season—in the store room on King street recently occupied by A. King Chandler, to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.

NOTICE TO STATE TAX PAYERS.

City Treasurer's Office, Room No. 2 Market Building, Alexandria, Va., May 13th, 1882.

All persons who have not paid their State taxes for the year 1881, will please take notice that I am compelled to settle my accounts for that year with the State on the 15th day of June, and to enable me to do so, must collect the taxes now unpaid, and unless these bills are paid by the 1st instant, I shall enforce their payment without further notice. Voters will bear in mind that they must pay their capitation tax for 1881, to entitle them to vote in the May and November elections. Merchants and others engaged in business, who have received certificates of their State licenses from the Commissioner of Revenue are hereby notified that under the law they are required to present the same at this office and pay the amount. A failure to do so renders them liable to a fine for doing business without a license.

M. B. HARLOW, City Treasurer.

READ THIS—A FINAL NOTICE.

The time allowed for the collection of City Taxes for the year 1881, is limited to the 31st day of May, 1882. Such bills as are then in the hands of the Collectors unpaid will have to be settled for by those charged with their collection. During the past three (3) years the law against the Collectors has been rigidly enforced, and they have been made to pay a large number of bills. Those who have not as yet paid their taxes for this year have been called upon from time to time and urged to do so. The request is once more made, and it is hoped they will come forward at once and settle, as there can be no escape for any one, and further indulgence will not be granted. No further notice will be given. Room 6, Market Building.
